The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

2,750

A GAIN OF 400

In the daily circulation of the Times since Jan. 1st is something no other Washington county daily can show.

The circulation statements of the Times can always be verified by anyone who so wishes. Press room, circulation books, paper bills and all that pertains to the circulation of the Times are open to the inspection of all. Is there any other Washington county daily that will show up in like manner?

The good old summer time has arrived, a little late, but none the less acceptable to farmers who have growing corn.

While the mentioning of this and that man for some state office a year ahead is going the rounds of the press, the Times wishes to propose the name of ex-Mayor C.W. Melcher as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor next year. Mr. Melcher made an excellent mayor of Barre and he has done much to organize and lead the Democratic party in Barre to victory at three succeeding elections. Where is the Democratic press of Vermont? The Times would like to have an expression of opinion from it on Mr. Melcher's chances of election.

New York is to elect a successor to Mayor Low this fall and the search for a candidate has begun. Mayor Low is willing to be renominated as the fusion candidate, while some fusionists are advocating a new man, the one most frequently mentioned being District Attorney Jerome. Tammany Hall is more undecided as to whom their candidate shall be than the fusionists, Congressman McClellan being the most probable, though he is handicapped by having the endorsement of Croker. Mayor Low has not accomplished all that was hoped of him in the office, but he has made a considerable advance over recent administrations in that city and would doubtless make a still better showing on another term. The liquor dealers of the city do not desire his reelection and they have subscribed a fund of $250,000 toward securing his defeat. This ought to have a good recommend for the mayor.

Sam Parks Leaves Prison.
 Ossining, N. Y., Sept. 2.—Samuel J. Parks, the New York walking delegate convicted of extortion, has left Sing Sing prison with Deputy Sheriff John Kelly for New York. Deputy Kelly delivered to Warden Johnson the order for Parks' release, and the warden immediately notified Parks that Justice Sewall had granted a certificate of reasonable doubt in his case and that he was to be released.

Mother and Niece Drowned.
 Middletown, N. Y., Sept. 2.—Mrs. Jeremiah Case, residing near Cuddebackville, and her six-year-old niece, Ruth Seybolt of Otisville, were drowned in the Neversink river opposite their home while crossing the river in a ferry. Miss Anna Blake of Goshen, although badly injured, reached shore by clinging to the cable by which the ferryboat was propelled. The bodies were recovered.

Duano—He was recently taken with a severe case of coupon-clippers' paralysis. —Baltimore American.

He Got It.
 "Give me your heart, fair maid!" he cried.
 She gave it to him as he prayed;
 Yet there's no love affair in this.
 For he is known that this fair miss
 Was selling hearts—the butcher's maid. —Baltimore News.

A Good Reason.
 A scientific novelist asserts that an out of door proposal of marriage should always be located under a chestnut tree, because it stands for "the old, old story." —Philadelphia Ledger.

Differing Opinions.
 There once was a chaffron in Fla.,
 Who had no auto hat, so she said.
 Little old bonnet,
 Men doted upon her.
 But girls said she couldn't look ha.

His Father's Pride.

"Your father is a hard worker, isn't he?"
 "Yes; but he has his reward. Just think how glad he must be to see how superior I am to him!" —San Francisco Examiner.

CHICAGO MURDER CLUE.

A Suspect Implicates Three Men as the Guilty Ones.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Three detectives have been sent from Iowa by Chief of Police O'Neil to search for the men who robbed the Chicago City railway barns of $3,000, killing two and seriously wounding two other employees. Information has been received here that three men answering the description of the robbers were put off a passenger train near the Iowa and Ill. rail boundary line early Sunday morning. The men were riding on the blind baggage and when ordered to leave the train threatened to shoot the conductor, saying that they had already killed one man during the night. The description of these men corresponds with the men described by Leuder, one of the suspects now held for the crime. Leuder, it is said, has confessed that he was implicated in the holdup.

He admitted to Chief O'Neil, it is said, that he was watching for the police while his companions were looting the office of the street car company. Leuder says that the men are strangers to him and that he is unable to give their names. According to Leuder's story he was to receive $1,000 for his part in the holdup, but says that the robbers gave him nothing. The police are inclined to doubt Leuder's confession.

A petition in bankruptcy has been filed by Charles H. Bowman, a laborer of Westford. He has liabilities of $1,217.47 and assets of $527, of which $150 are claimed exempt.

Rev. R. S. Sidelinger, formerly of St. Johnsbury, recently district organizer for the United Workmen of America, has been deposed from his office because of charges of unbecoming conduct.

R. D. Beals of Rutland, has the boot worn by his brother, the late Arthur Beals, 45 years ago. It is what was known as "the good old skin boot" by people of that time and was worn by Mr. Beals when about four years old.

Lieut. Walt C. Johnson, son-in-law of Charles E. Miner of Burlington, has been appointed adjutant of the Maine scouts to attend the St. Louis fair. The scouts exhibition will consist of four companies, and they will remain during the fair. Mr. Johnson expects to leave Maine in February and to reach the United States in March.

Word comes from Readsboro that W. S. Kelly of Providence, R. I., is in communication with the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company for the equipment needed for the development of the big power plant which it is proposed to develop from Howe's pond at Readsboro. The cost of the equipment has not yet been fixed upon definitely, but it is said that it will amount to fully $100,000. Fully another like amount will be needed to properly buy up and clear the land needed.

Bankers are on the lookout for a new and dangerous counterfeit $10 silver certificate which is being circulated in some parts of the country. It is described as follows: Series of 1891, check letter D, plate number 21, signed by J. F. Faint, Treasurer, register of the treasury, and D. N. Morgan, treasurer of the United States. The note bears the portrait of Thomas A. Lincoln. The counterfeit is about an eighth of an inch shorter than the genuine; there has been no attempt to imitate the silk fiber, the green ink on the back is darker than on the genuine note; and the seal is pink instead of carmine. It is on paper of good quality and is well calculated to deceive those who do not carefully observe it.

Where is Walter Rogers?

New York, Sept. 2.—The police have been asked to look for Walter Rogers, eighteen years old, of 64 Devoe street who failed to return to his home. The family of the young man say he recently had a disagreement with a young girl to whom he was engaged and they believe this had something to do with his disappearance.

Benzine Plays Havoc.

Pittsburg, Sept. 2.—While mixing paints in the shop of Joseph Mukloskey at Homestead, Pa., a large can of benzine exploded, killing Sada Louche, aged twenty-one years, almost instantly and fatally burning Sinusky Watley, Arion Condusky, a mill man, was seriously burned while attempting to extinguish the flames. The building was burned to the ground. The cause of the explosion is not known.
